

Robert Klaiss & Kristine Robinson

NEMR Total HR

Robert is Vice President of NEMR Total HR and a Licensed Insurance Broker with 20+ years of expertise in insurance and professional services. A seasoned Human Resources executive leader and risk management expert, he delivers innovative business solutions, leads benefits administration, and builds strong partnerships that drive organizational success.

Kristine, SHRM-CP, is Director of Client Experience with 25+ years in client and marketing leadership. She specializes in process improvements that elevate customer satisfaction, strengthen employee commitment, and boost retention, helping organizations achieve lasting engagement and long-term success.

Small Shop, Big Advantage: Outsmart the Competition for Techs with HR & Benefits

- Using premium benefits, technology, and HR support as a recruiting and retention advantage
- Tips for small to mid-sized contractors on how they can compete with big-company benefits
- Why vendor consolidation saves you time, elevates employee benefit offerings, and strengthens infrastructure and compliance while giving you a competitive edge